THE ODDBALLS AND OUTCASTS; THE WEIRD AND THE WILD.

Established in 2018, Takeout Order was born out of the necessity for self-deprecation. We know our weaknesses and shortcomings and aren't afraid to display them. Founder Dhanai Holtzclaw grew up a happy kid listening to sad music. He was a self-proclaimed emo geek surrounded by art, animation, technology, and punk-rock music. This created an outlook on life that would ultimately epitomize the culture that Takeout is trying to embody.

We are just a bunch of tattoo loving, head banging nerds watching cartoons and playing video games while drinking three beers and six cups of coffee. We welcome you to join us! For those who fear the judgement of dining alone, we are thinking of you.
